Many have their gardens in and others are planting and people who own chickens ought to keep them penned up and not let them roam around on their neighbor's garden. It usually results in ill-feeling between neighbors and you don't want anything of this kind, do you? If not then keep your chickens at home on your own property and let them scratch your gardens.

TO NON-ADVERTISERS.—Don't you know that you are the fellow that's losing money by not advertising in this paper. Go over each page and read the live merchants and business firms' ads. Do you imagine they are doing all this advertising for charity's sake? No! They are getting results, and so will you if you will attend to your advertising like you would any other business proposition. We tell you again that all the people read this paper—the ads as well as the news. Ask our advertisers or our subscribers.

Did you clean up your back yard?

An excellent program was given, followed by dancing until midnight. Choice refreshments were served. The affair was attended by a large number of ward members and was pronounced "the best ever" by all.

A large force of men and teams are still "pegging" away building up the county road between Pleasant Grove and American Fork. The part of road already finished looks good and will be permanent if dragged at the proper times. It should have been done years ago; however, better late than never. Thanks are due County Commissioner Christensen for insisting that this work be done in the north end of our county.

Mr. Steve Woods was down from Eureka this week, visiting his family.

The only time an editor pleases everybody is when he turns his face to the wall and expires; and the people hang around him and say things about him that would make him scream for joy if his poor deaf ears could only hear.

We often hear people speak of the women gossips, and the Lord knows they are had enough, but they are not to be compared with the "He Gossips," who know every one's business and can tell you all the family secrets of his neighbors and never has a good word for any one. You all recognize the specimen, and he should be shunned like a pestilence, yet every town has him, and just why he is tolerated the Lord only knows, but it is presumed his little mealy dried up soul is not worth bothering with.

Of course you're going. Where? Why to the Employees Hall at the Apollo Hall on Friday evening next. The popular Symphony Orchestra will furnish the music.

Mr. A. Tuttle and Mr. T. A. Money of the Money-Tuttle Automobile company of Spanish Fork were in American Fork, Wednesday, with one of their "Reo" cars. Prospects are that a number of our citizens will purchase "Reo" cars this spring.

The members of the B. L. C. S. Sorosis spent a most pleasant and enjoyable time Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Hanson. The time was spent in sewing and social chat, after which a nicely prepared luncheon was served. The Sorosis will meet April 29 with Mrs. Roy Steele.

THE DAUGHTER OF THE HILLS

A Romance of Ancient Rome. An Appealing Drama, Played in Shadow of Nero's Throne.

Look out for heralds. We will tell you what is on for the balance of the week. Keep your eye on the lobby of the Orient. We offer you a two-part feature and complete change every night. This isn't all—WATCH.

Some go to church just for a walk;
Some go there to laugh and talk;
Some go there a fault to cover;
Some go there to meet a lover;
Some go there to greet a friend;
Some go there an hour to spend;
Some go there the styles to see;
Some are all hypocrisy.
Some go there to dose and nod—
A few go there to worship God.

Mrs. Robert Proctor was a visitor Tuesday.
